BRITISH DRIVE PIERCES THE HINDENBURG LINE

HAIG'S TROOPS LAUNCH NEW ATTACK ON THE SCARPE

east of Mametz, Carnoy and Ricourt. There has been little fighting south of the Somme. The British have improved their line east of Chuignes and Debny, and captured Fresnoy le Roye.

General Mangin's French army has advanced slightly between the Ailette and the Aisne, capturing 400 more Germans.

Battle Raging on Front of 30 Miles, Says Ford

By BERT FORD,

International News Service Staff Correspondent.

With the British Army on the bloody Battle Front, Aug. 25.—(Night).—The advance of the allies is spreading like a prairie fire. Fighting now extends over a thirty-mile front. The same brisk advance and sweeping successes marked the operations of the British forces today as on Saturday.

The total number of prisoners taken since the fourth British attack started its drive on Aug. 8 is now nearing the 85,000 mark. Six hundred officers have been captured, together with 100 guns. An enormous harvest of machine guns and vast quantities of material of all kinds have been taken during the last two days, the exact number not being known as yet as the units capturing them turn them on the enemy until the ammunition is used up when they are added to the British collection of trophies.

The drive already is the most important British offensive movement since the beginning of the war. Early this morning it was reported that British patrols entered Bapaume, 17,000 YANKS IN FOUR DAYS. Seventeen thousand prisoners have been captured within the last four days. The captives have become so numerous that infantry units are complaining of their ranks being weakened, owing to the necessity of furnishing so many guards to lead their country to its end.

WHERE BRITISH CUT HINDENBURG LINE

After five days of furious fighting north of the Somme River, British troops yesterday reached the old Hindenburg line to which the Germans retired early in 1917. The Hindenburg line was tugged at Baillecourt, when British troops entered the town. Baillecourt is northeast of the Albert-Bapaume road. Thousands more prisoners have been taken. The French, between the Ailette River and the Oise, increased their progress east of Bapaume, working up the valley of the Ailette toward the Chemin-de-Dames.

The shaded area represents the allied advance since Aug. 8; the solid black shows Sunday's gains.

On the east side of the river, across the ditch aided in the manner characteristic of the gallant British detachment.

A detachment of British troops fought as vigorously as a ravine standing from the shore toward the front of the British line.

Every man in the British army was terrified by the contrast that the capture of Thiepval, Concretville and Potters, names burned deep in the minds of the British army, were effected with trifling losses and with such perfect strategy.

Without a lull the British forces continued their advance during the night until a full moon. Today they pushed on, carrying their line over the Bapaume-Albert highway, entering the ruined villages of Contalmaison, Marennes, Marincourt and reaching Warlencourt. They advanced to the high ground of the Fosseuse woods which dominates the sector north of Bapaume.

Meanwhile other forces pushed to the west, following the capture of Baillecourt and Avesnes. The British line has been advanced from 4 to 10 miles along the active fighting front in the past two days.

The fighting was the hardest at Miramont, and also at Chiet le Grand. Two days ago the Germans centered most of their resistance at these points, pushing a desperate fight to prevent being pushed back.

Every disorganized. No battle in the whole war has been marked by a heavier massing of German machine guns by the Germans. They have had for the first time their losses being terrific.

The British have been learning through prisoners, have captured reinforcements from the Potters front. Prisoners admit that the utmost disorganization exists behind the German lines. Tired and depleted units have been thrown back into the fray when they were supposed to be fighting. Many units have lacked command and in haphazard formation. Various divisions have been badly shattered.

Military commanders say this morning that the Germans are short of man power and equipment—also are reserving captured fresh divisions for stronger lines in the rear and awaiting a more important blow.

The British have been surprised in Becourt Wood, near Albert, the British command was in by a heavy barrage and killing or capturing many of them. Many of the captured staff were seized, together with valuable documents. Headquarters have found com-

BRITISH EXTEND FRONT ALONG SOMME

London, Aug. 26.—(Noon).—British troops have extended their fighting front. The British War Office announced today that Haig's men attacked at 3 o'clock this morning in the Scarpe sector and are making good progress.

The third and fourth armies continue to forge ahead. Progress has been made outside the Somme river at Marcourt, the War Office announced.

The Germans delivered counterattacks in this sector, but were beaten off, the War Office stated.

A heavy rain is falling in the Somme sector.

The Scarpe sector lies along the Somme river, which lies immediately north of the Somme sector. It virtually means the fighting has been moved over a wider territory.

The text of the War Office statement follows:

"At 3 o'clock this morning our troops attacked in the Scarpe sector and are reported to have made good progress."

"On the southern portion of the line front we have advanced our line slightly outside the Somme and by a successful operation carried out yesterday afternoon have made progress in the direction of Marcourt."

"Yesterday evening the enemy launched a counter-attack against our south and north of Bapaume in the neighborhood of Becourt le Bois and Pavilly. In both localities the attack was repulsed."

"North of Pavilly our troops met the enemy with the bayonet, inflicting heavy casualties upon him and taking prisoners."

"Another counter-attack attempted by the enemy late in the evening in this neighborhood was also unsuccessful."

"The result is in our hands and we have made progress beyond the village of this point we have improved our position southwest of Noy and west of Croisilles."

"Heavy rain is falling on the battle front."

Germans Making Desperate Stand at Coudy Le Chateau

By HENRY G. WALES, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

With the American Forces on the Battle Front, Aug. 25.—(Night).—The Germans are putting up a desperate stand in the neighborhood of Coudy Le Chateau, near the village of Soissons. The advance of the French troops across the plain north of Soissons is being bitterly contested as the entire German line along the Aisne is threatened with disaster.

German officers taken prisoner, said their men feared the tanks the most and admitted that the tanks added the violence and barrage combination and that it was tactics to oppose them.

The Fourth Saxon Division was just about to attempt to retake the Aisne railroad when they were routed by the British.

Lieutenant Saved, Men by Refusing to Use Boche Dugouts, Later Shelled

By HENRY G. WALES, International News Staff Correspondent.

With the American Army on the Meuse-Verde Front, Aug. 25.—(Night).—A French company of Brooklyn, commanding a company of Americans attacked by the Germans Thursday at Coudy Le Chateau, southwest of Pannes, related today how he had saved the lives of his men by refusing to dig their own dugouts instead of utilizing those the Germans had left.

When the Americans were in the dugouts the Germans had evacuated the enemy artillery, knowing the exact range of those dugouts, kept pounding them heavily. All the while the Americans were safe in their own boughs.

Finally, low-flying German planes discovered the Americans and signaled their location, which was immediately followed by a scattering fire of high explosives.

When the Germans attacked Thursday night Langstaff's company was left occupying a salient instead on both fronts and in front. He with- drew his men to safety until day break and then, with other Americans, he fought back the attack and recaptured their positions.

Langstaff said that during the attack the company cook, an Austrian, abandoned his own weapon, seized a rifle and joined in the fighting, inflicting great havoc. He also commended himself that he dropped his rifle and joined in the fighting.

HARVARD FLIER AVENGES DEATH OF HIS CHUM

Lieut. Cutler, Former Crack
Carpenter and Swimmer, Disables U-boat With Bomb

Lieutenant Roger Cutler of the Naval Aviation Section, the Bostonian and former Harvard swimmer and aviator, "got" a German submarine, and secured, at the same time, the revenge he sought upon the enemy for the death of his chum, Ensign Stephen Potter.

The revenge was in fact the same measure that the Germans had taken. Ensign Potter was killed while attacking five German submarines. Lieutenant Cutler disabled a large U-boat by dropping a bomb upon it from a biplane piloted by Ensign John J. Schaeffelin, the Tinian.

Cutler, Schaeffelin, Machinist Mate Bernstein and Electrician McTaggart were cruising in a seaplane, as related in a letter just received from the other side. They spotted a U-boat. Schaeffelin guided the seaplane over it. Cutler released a bomb which scored a fair hit. The U-boat was so crippled that it was unable to submerge. The seaplane alighted in a destroyer which resumed the submarine. Only six of the U-boat's crew survived.

Lieutenant Cutler is twenty-nine years old and son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Cutler of Brookline. He enlisted and captured the Harvard crew which whipped Yale in 1911.

He married Miss Leslie Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Bradley of Commonwealth avenue, in 1911. Their home is in Charles River Village.

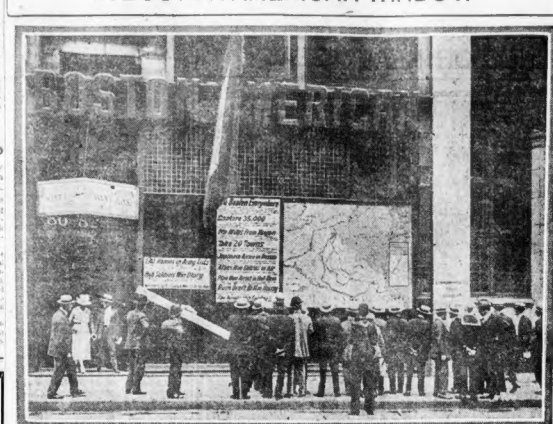

MAJORITY OF LIBERTY BONDS PRIVATELY OWNED

Washington, Aug. 24.—Preliminary to the new Liberty Loan campaign the controller of the currency is investigating the amount of such funds held by the banks. It finds that of the $1,125,000,000 subscribed $600,000,000 passed through national banks. Most of these were absorbed by individual subscribers.

On June 23 only $6,825,000 of the bonds were held by the national banks or 23.1 per cent. of their amount. The balance, $1,118,175,000, was held by 1,118,175 individuals or 23.1 per cent. of the total.

These figures indicate to the Treasury department that the bonds have been largely taken and held by individual investors.

WOMAN BURGLAR AIDS IN $10,000 FUR ROBBERY

Bay Harbor, Me., Aug. 16.—A woman acting as the pal of a professional burglar is believed to have taken part in the robbery of $10,000 worth of furs and other garments from the store of Edward Gensburg on Mount Desert street. The robbery was one of the largest that has occurred in Maine for several years.

The police were given the tip on the supposed robbers by a woman who lives across the street from the store and who claims she was awakened by the whirling of an auto engine and saw the pair entering the store.

From the description she has furnished and the cool manner in which the robbery was carried out, the police of this place and Portland are inclined to believe that the man was a professional burglar and the woman his pal.

GALLIVAN DEATH MAY BE SOLVED BY 3 WOMEN

The police are waiting for three women said to have witnessed the circumstances resulting in the death of James P. Gallivan, a South Boston liquor dealer, to come forward and tell what they know of the case.

Gallivan was found unconscious and fatally injured in the freight elevator well at No. 7 Temple place last Monday night. He died at the Revere Hospital Tuesday morning and was buried Friday. Medical Examiner Marshall reported his death due to a fall, but could give no clue to what caused the fall.

Following the funeral, friends of the family told the AMERICAN that they were not satisfied with the police theory that Gallivan accidentally fell into the elevator well.

They based their theory of foul play on the facts that the elevator door, had been bolted on the inside a few hours before the body was found; that blood was found beneath Gallivan's finger nails, and that three young-looking men appeared at the Temple place building on Tuesday and asked if Gallivan were dead.

Today, information reached the AMERICAN that three women, standing at the Temple place entrance to the alleyway, near which the body was found, witnessed the circumstances immediately preceding Gallivan's plunge into the elevator well.

STRIKERS MINUS UNION CARDS DENIED WORK

Brooklyn, Aug. 24.—Many of the independent shoe strikers, who had failed to secure membership cards in the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, were turned away when they reported for work at their respective factories today.

The action of the manufacturers, in taking back only U. S. & W. Union members, was protested by the strikers to Examiner Davis, who is expected today from Washington, representing the National Labor Board.

Strikers who could show R. & B. cards were given work. The turn to the factories was made under instructions telegraphed by the National Labor Board. The instructions were that, if the strikers returned without payment of union reinstatement fees, the National Labor Board would grant a hearing at Washington Wednesday at 2 p. m.

The strikers took this to mean they need not get union reinstatement fees to return to work.

The manufacturers were standing by their previous position that they would not accept strikers unless the latter joined the R. & B. W. Union.

Examiner Davis will try, it is understood, to have the strikers met at work before the time set for the Washington hearing.

Is Democracy Safe for Massachusetts?

Stripped of the camouflage with which corporation lawyers attempt to DISGUISE THE REAL NATURE of the argument AGAINST THE Initiative and Referendum, it amounts to simply this, that the people are unfit to govern themselves, and must, therefore, be content to SURRENDER ALL CONTROL OVER THEIR AGENTS whom they hire to perform the drudgery of law-making.

Read what Ex-Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California, who was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate by a plurality of nearly 300,000 on the same ticket and by the same State which defeated Charles E. Hughes, the Republican presidential candidate, has to say of this argument:

"The objection most often urged at the time of the contest over the Initiative and Referendum in California was that the people were unfit to legislate for themselves. THIS IS AN INDICTMENT OF DEMOCRACY ITSELF. The results of the adoption of the Initiative and Referendum amendment have demonstrated that the WHOLE people legislate with as KEEN DISCRIMINATION and as clear INTELLIGENCE as the small number of the people who constitute Legislatures. WITH THE NEW POWER HAS COME THE SENSE OF A NEW RESPONSIBILITY. MODERN CONDITIONS and ECONOMIC CHANGES have made it ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL THAT THE PEOPLE RESERVE THE POWER THEMSELVES TO AMEND THEIR CONSTITUTION and TO INITIATE LAWS OR HALT THE ENACTMENTS OF AN INCOMPETENT, A CORRUPT, OR A RECALTRANT LEGISLATURE."
